Dear Dr. Helper,
 Thanks for your reading. I really need your help.
 Joan and I were good friends before. We always shared everything with each other. We both liked playing baseball, going hiking, and 21 at the beach. 22, after we lived together, we couldn't stand each other's way of life. For example, she wanted to go shopping in the department store, but I 23 like it at all. She enjoyed making friends with foreigners, but I was bad at 24 English. Worst of all, she always got up late, but I enjoyed watching the beautiful scenery of sunrise. On the last day, we finally had a big fight with each other. I really don't want our friendship over. What can I do?
